Learningoutcomes(CLO):

After completing this course, students will be able to understand rational behaviour and fundamentals of microeconomics. They will be able to explain consumer's and producer's behaviour and their optimum decisions. Students will be able to know about the firms and industry, markets and their decisions about optimum production. They will be also able to explain the theory of distribution and concept of economic welfare. Learning microeconomics is an excellent way to gain an understanding of many factors that affect us in the real world, such as methods of buying goods, product pricing and input pricing, Ultimately, learning microeconomics is key in learning about the principles of economics.
